BEIRUT'S RELIGIOUS FEUD.

Cause of Trouble Ascribed to Enmity Between Two Powerful Tribes.

Mr. William Ordway Partridge of New York city, who went through the east last year for material to be used in his art studies, thinks that the troubles at Beirut are due to the enmity between the Druses and Maronites, two powerful tribes, always at swords' points with each other, says the New York Herald.

"Beirut," he says, "being a port and the end of the caravan route from Damascus, is the meeting place for all the guides and attendants from these caravans, and there is constant turmoil between them. While I was there two or three murders a night were of common occurrence. Beirut is a beautiful spot twenty miles from old Tyre and Sidon. The American college has done a great work there, but it counts really for very little."

"The Christians reported killed there probably belong to the Druses or the Maronite tribe. The Druses look for English protection and the Maronites favor the French. The Druses have a queer, mysterious religion they keep secret from every one. In its tenets it is said to be something like the Unitarian creed. The Druses and Maronites hate each other cordially. These tribes are the important factors in the Beirut situation and the overhanging mountains of Lebanon."

Seeking Russian Treasure.
A Russian merchant named Ziminoff is causing the bed of the Voiga in Russia to be examined near Katow in an endeavor to find a treasure which is said to be valued at upward of $15,000,000, says the Philadelphia Public Ledger. The fantastic story is circulated that this treasure was cast into the river by the once famous brigand, Steukoy Razynin. The story goes that, pursued by Cossacks, the brigand threw away this immense hoard of gold and jewels accumulated during a life of crime. The spot was only known to five leaders of the band. The last, who has just died, revealed. It is said, the secret to the merchant.

RECORD OF THE PAST.
No Stronger Evidence Can Be Had In Barre.

Look well to their record. What they have done many times in years gone by is the best guarantee for future results. Anyone with a bad back; any reader suffering from urinary troubles; from any kidney ills, will find in the following evidence proof that relief and cure is near at hand.

L. H. Hooker, contractor and builder of 101 Prospect St., says: "I doctored and used almost every known remedy for my kidneys, but nothing did me any good. There was a constant dull pain just over those organs, and I could not sit but a short time. For it made me so nervous that I had to get up and walk around. A kidney weakness which was very annoying and painful through the night existed, while in the morning there was a distressing retention. I was very bad when I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. I got a box at E. A. Brown & Co's drug store, No. 48 North Main Street, Barre, Vermont, more out of curiosity than expecting results. Well, after using it, I felt so encouraged that I continued the treatment and took five boxes in all. I felt better in every way than I had for a number of years. I never used a medicine that did me as much good as Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
